

Full Time Tax Consultant

We are seeking an experienced and technically capable Tax Consultant to join our consultancy team. This is a client facing role (generally via Teams when needed), that requires expertise in complex tax matters, the ability to think cases through, and to deliver clear, actionable written advice across a wide range of scenarios. You will work closely with the Consultancy Manager, your fellow consultants and a team of advice line tax advisors.

On a day-to-day basis consultancy team members meet with accountants (via Teams), establish how we can assist them and their end clients, follow up with a quote and if we get the go ahead schedule the work and turn it around within a few weeks.

Ideally the candidate will come from HMRC or an Accountancy practice background.

Key Responsibilities and some of the desired experience:

- Prepare detailed reports and recommendations
- Review and advise on corporate restructuring and group reorganisations
- Inheritance tax and estate planning
- Tax residency and domicile status reviews
- Holding company insertions and group structuring
- Share buyback transactions
- Capital gains tax reviews and mitigation
- Incorporation tax implications and planning
- Onshore and offshore trust structuring and reviews
- Secure HMRC tax clearances and manage correspondence
- Lead resolution of specialist HMRC enquiries and investigations
- Collaborate with internal teams and mentor junior staff
- Maintain up-to-date knowledge of UK tax legislation and case law
- Peer review colleagues work
- Create invoices for the work completed

Qualifications & Experience

- Ideally, Chartered Tax Adviser (CTA) or Association of Taxation Technicians (ATT)
- Proven experience in practice at Tax Manager/Consultant level or above
- Strong technical knowledge across corporate, personal, and international tax or experience in one of these areas, with a have a go attitude towards learning new areas
- Exceptional written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team

What We Offer

- Competitive salary and commission structure
- Home working arrangements/flexible work arrangements/part time/job share
- Access to CPD and professional development support
- A supportive, intellectually curious team culture

February 2026